

DANCE

• SCIENCE

• CONVERSATION

• INSPIRATION

JUNE 2-3, 2023

CAPACITY, CRACKLING + COLLABORATION

How the tiniest cracks inspire a large-scale performance.

photo by Christobal Vivar | @vivaphoto

Explore your creative spark, learn about collaboration
across disciplines & experience ways of thinking creatively.

Salle Halle D'Accueil
Ancienne Manufacture de Tabac
7 Rue de la Krutenau
67000 Strasbourg, France

In 3 independent events across 2 days of conversation, dance and multi-disciplinary workshops

Melissa Riker (Kinesis Project dance theatre, New York City) and Dr. Martha (Missy) Cary Eppes (USIAS Fellow and Fulbright Scholar, U. of Strasbourg) offer insight and active engagement connected to their collaboration of art and science connecting to our changing environment.

Performance by Melissa Riker and Solène Bossu (Paris)

Co-Facilitated by Katiouschka Kuhn (INLAND Centre Européen de Théâtre physique, Strasbourg)

Friday - Conversation and Discussion
6:30 - 9:30 pm (free)

Riker and Eppes will present their collaboration, offering a model of dialogue.

Engaging questions and conversation.

Opportunity for scientists and artists to talk to one another and ask questions. Riker will use simple movement to bridge understanding.

Saturday - Workshop* 10am-1pm /break/ 2-5pm

Concept and invention Workshop with Melissa Riker.

All levels, skills and artistic disciplines welcome.

Katiouschka Kuhn and Solène Boussu co-facilitate

*€20 - comes with INLAND membership

Saturday - Presentation & Performance 6-9 pm (free)

An excerpt of "Capacity, or the Work of Crackling" performed by Melisa Riker and Solène Bossu.

Optional performances by workshop participants.

Science lecture by Prof. Eppes on rock fracture research register for any or all events at QR above or www.theatre-physique.eu

